PORTUGUESE ARTILLERY COUP SHORT LIVED

LOYAL TROOPS CRUSH REVOLT IN PORTUGAL

2 BATTERIES OF ARTILLERY
STILLED AFTER NIGHT
OF SIEGE
FORMER HAD FIRED ON THE CITY OF LIS-BON

Lisbon, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Troops loyal to the Portuguese government here today crushed a revolt of two batteries of artillery after a night of siege. The rebels massed their forces and guns in Alameda across the Tagus river from Lisbon and fired on the city.

Government forces quickly rallied to the defense and laid siege to the revolution force. Finally the pressure against the rebels became so strong that they capitulated at 8 A. M. today.

Paris, Feb. 3.—Authentic advices received here today declared there had been violent fighting in the streets of Lisbon in the short lived revolution.

The capitulation occurred two hours before the expiration of the government's ultimatum.

(Here the cable becomes mixed, evidently from censoring. No mention had been made in previous cables of an ultimatum).

London, Feb. 3.—After 24 hours of fighting and siege the Portuguese government succeeded in putting down a short lived revolution.

Lisbon and Paris advices, some of the former garbled and deleted by censor, showed the revolt started early yesterday morning.

Colonel Justo de Azevedo, at that time, sought to storm the Campidoglio barracks, but he was arrested.

While this message claimed that his coup "miscarried," later advices showed there had been violent fighting last night in the streets of Lisbon, a bombardment of Lisbon across the Tagus by revolutionary members of two batteries of artillery and an answering siege by loyal republican troops.

Finally at 8 A. M. today the rebel artillerymen capitulated, their coup resembling in brevity, the marine revolt of last autumn, which was suppressed in a single day.

Lisbon, Feb. 3.—Lisbon this afternoon is calm, following the submission of 120 rebels who attempted yesterday a revolt against the government.

Fifteen of the rebels were wounded and the entire group has been taken prisoner.

Several houses were damaged in the course of the siege.

GRAND JURY INDICTS FIVE N. W. ROADS

CHARGES VIOLATION OF LONG AND SHORT HAUL
CLAUSE

STATE RAILROAD LAW CLAIMED
VIOLATED, HENNEPIN
JURY ACTS

Minneapolis, Feb. 3.—(UP)—The Hennepin county grand jury late Tuesday returned six indictments against five northwest railroads charging violation of the long and short haul clause of the state railroad law.

The roads against which true bills were returned are:

Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha; Northern Pacific; Soo Line; W. H. Bremer, receiver for the Minneapolis & St. Louis railroad; H. E. Byram, Mark W. Potter and Edward J. Brundage, receivers for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul.

Two indictments were returned against the Northern Pacific railroad, one charging discrimination in rates, and the other violation of the long and short haul provisions.

The grand jury consumed almost the entire day in argument over testimony of witnesses, and true bills were not voted until 5 P. M.

Prominent rail officials today said a long drawn out controversy would probably result from the grand jury's action.

SURPLUS MILK PROBLEM NOW WORRIES CHICAGO

DAIRYMEN FROM INDIANA, ILLINOIS AND WISCONSIN AT MEETING

TUBERCULIN TESTED MILK WILL COST MORE, IT IS ASSERTED

Chicago, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Establishment of a surplus that will take care of the surplus milk problem by a co-operative marketing plan is underway in the ranks of the Milk Producers' Association following their annual meeting held yesterday.

Dairymen from Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin attended the meeting. The plan was submitted by State Representative F. A. McCarthy, Elgin, attorney for the association, and was referred to the executive board for approval. Meantime McCarthy and a committee of 15 selected to meet with him will work out the details of the proposed reorganization.

Speaking on the pure milk problem of Chicago, Representative McCarthy said that if the people of Chicago want tuberculin tested milk they must pay what it costs to produce it.

"We will never get relief until we reorganize," McCarthy said. "The farmer is going to be a peasant unless agriculture is put on an equality with labor and industry."

The plan to be worked out is expected to result in the marketing of all milk produced by the association under one contract to the dealers of Chicago.

Each member of the association will have one vote and each will pay from one to two per cent of the proceeds of his sale of milk for the upkeep of the association.

SYLVESTER, LATE BANKER, IS IN TOILS OF LAW

CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT
OF $100,000 IN FUNDS

FORMER PRESIDENT OF FIRST
STATE BANK OF PLAIN-VIEW, MINN.

New Orleans, La., Feb. 3.—(UP)—Edward L. Sylvester, former president of the First State bank of Plainview, Minn., wanted for alleged embezzlement of $100,000 of the bank's funds, was brought here late yesterday from Biloxi, Miss.

When Deputy Sheriff Fitzgerald appeared at Biloxi to take Sylvester into custody, the sheriff there at first refused to release the banker claiming he was entitled to a share of the reward money. The sheriff finally relented, however, upon being told the Minnesota officials had nothing to do with payment of this money.

Immediately upon being turned over by the Biloxi sheriff, Sylvester was taken to New Orleans, as the Minnesota authorities feared objection might be made to his extradition.

When arrested at Biloxi, Sylvester was working as fireman in the Hotel Avon, at $1 per day. He had been eating his meals with the colored help at the hotel.

Sylvester, who had been posing under the name of Samuel Vledwin, told officials he had come to Biloxi in March, the day his bank at Plainview closed its doors.

After leaving Plainview Sylvester went to Chicago and immediately left for Cincinnati, staying there one night and went to Chattanooga, Tenn., for one night, and then to Birmingham, Ala., leaving immediately for Biloxi, Miss., where he began work on March 27 for a man named Hoffstetter on a truck garden farm. He worked on this farm three months then spent short periods at common labor in various parts of the state, finally securing the fireman's job at the hotel where he had been employed two weeks.

When taken into custody Sylvester seemed to be in a cheerful mood although he appeared somewhat older and thinner.

It is expected the return trip to Minnesota will commence some time today.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Highway officials of three states today are considering a plan for a highway that will start at Lake Geneva, Wis., skirt the edges of Cook county and terminate at Dunes Park, Ind.

The plan submitted to the officials at a meeting held here yesterday called for the road to pass through the Lake Geneva and Fox Lake regions, the Fox river, Des Plaines and Du Page river valleys and through Kankakee, Monocacy and Shelby, Illinois, thence to La Porte, Michigan City and Dunes Park, Indiana.

The road will be 300 miles in length.

CANADIAN MAKES CHARGES AGAINST HIS GOVERNMENT

Ottawa, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Charging the government with appointing "crooks and criminals" to posts in the customs service, O. H. Stevens, opposition leader, told commons today that a flagrant organized smuggling of narcotics and liquor proceeds along the international boundary under "protective operation."

Stevens' charges are likely to lead to an inquiry into all Canadian customs houses along the boundary. He charged Canada had lost $32,000,000 revenue on account of customs irregularities, alleging that T. E. Bislaton, former "preventative" chief at Montreal, had indulged in these alleged irregularities.

Stevens claims Bislaton owned a farm lying partly in Canada and partly in the United States which has been the scene of the smuggling operation.

Sensational developments are anticipated, since it is claimed also the government had made no serious effort to keep the United States-Canadian pact concluded several years ago, to check the bootleg liquor flow across the border.

A report just issued shows that beer, ale and spirituous liquors valued at $11,000,000 had been exported to the U. S. in the past 8 months.

WILLIAM WOOD, MILLIONAIRE, KILLS HIMSELF

MOTORED INTO COUNTRY NEAR ORMOND BEACH,
FLORIDA

PLACED PISTOL TO MOUTH, FA-
TALLY WOUNDING
HIMSELF

Ormond Beach, Fla., Feb. 3.—(UP)—While society discussed the suicide of William Wood, millionaire and former president of the American Wool Company preparations were made today to ship the body for burial. The 68 year old millionaire motored into the country with his chauffeur and valet yesterday, alighted from the machine, told his servants to drive on and then placing a pistol to his mouth, fatally wounded himself. His servants heard the report of the gun and rushed back to find him dying. He had been in ill health for several weeks it was reported at his home. Wood was dead by the time his personal physician, Dr. A. D. Griffin was summoned.

The late millionaire and his wife, formerly Ellen Ayers of Boston came to Ormond Beach some weeks ago for the winter. Mrs. Wood had a mysterious premonition of the tragedy, it was revealed. About noon she had instituted a search for her husband which was interrupted by the arrival of the valet and chauffeur with the body of the millionaire.

Wood committed suicide after he had won in an amazing life struggle great wealth and a commanding position in the business world. The son of humble immigrant parents, he went to work a mill boy and by zeal and ability rose to be a dominating figure in the worsted and woolen manufacturing industry. During the strike in Lawrence in 1912 Wood was indicted for conspiracy in a dynamite plot but was acquitted.

During the war his concern was indicted by a federal grand jury for profiteering but the indictment later was quashed.

Mrs. Olive Michaelson, Omaha, health, could not make the trip to Dakota, so the daughter decided to come here. She died in Council Bluffs, four miles from her destination.

GRUELLING CONTEST IN COAL STRIKE

OFF STRIKE SETTLE-MENT

BITTERNESS MARKS THE ATTITUDE OF BOTH SIDES

By PAUL W. WHITE
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Philadelphia, Feb. 3.—A gruelling endurance contest in the anthracite industry was forecast today as representatives of miners and operators returned to their homes, following the breaking off of strike settlement methods.

Bitterness marks the attitude of both sides with their leaders planning to take to the hard coal fields educational campaigns in an effort to win support of public opinion.

While President John L. Lewis of the miners and Major W. W. Inglis of the operators reiterated their intention to wage a finish fight rather than to yield to the question of arbitration of wages, observers commented that in reality the opposing factors were closer together than since last July 9, when negotiations began at Atlantic City.

The paradoxical situation is presented because of the strongly held opinions upon arbitration of wages in future disputes. The operators insist on a board with final authority to fix wages, the miners will agree only to a recommendatory board, although virtually binding themselves to accept the recommendations.

But no matter how thin the line of distinction is drawn the fact is apparent that the door to anthracite peace is closed if not locked.

President Lewis, after last evening's sine die adjournment of the joint conference, charged that the controversy was no longer a strike but a lock out. After outlining the miners' stand, he said: "Further we cannot go. We cannot now and will not later accept the principle of compulsory arbitration."

Philadelphia, Feb. 3.—An exchange of prepared statements in which personal animosities were aired, marked the anthracite controversy today.

President John L. Lewis of the miners, charged that the negotiating congress broke up yesterday because of the desire of Samuel D. Warriner, chairman of the anthracite operators' conference to "insist on his pound of flesh."

Major W. W. Inglis, operators' sub committee leader, retaliated with the statement that Lewis had not correctly stated the mine owners' proposals to the 158,000 striking miners.

A resolution requesting Pres. Coolidge to call the anthracite coal miners and operators to the White House to urge upon them the "national importance" of an agreement to settle the anthracite strike was introduced in the senate today by Senator Cope-land, New York democrat.

STORM SO BAD NOBODY TOOK ANY PICTURES OF SCENE

Los Angeles, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Badly frightened, but unharmed, 50 motion picture players aboard the windjammer Indian were towed into Los Angeles harbor today.

For hours during the night, the actors and extras, plus a crew of 14, had battled with a stiff wind, several miles off shore.

Distress signals were sent out at midnight and the tug "Sea Witch" reached the vessel this morning.

The Indiana left the harbor yesterday morning, headed for Catalina island with a party on "location" from the Metropolitan studios.

A 35 mile an hour gale developed shortly after the old clipper ship left the harbor and she was buffeted about all day and evening. Distress flares were sent up finally and the Sea Witch hastened to her aid.

Among the actors aboard the Indiana were Joseph Schildkraut, Matthew Betz and Clarence Burton.

Hurricane winds along the southern California coast had partially subsided today and property along Santa Monica bay, threatened by the breakers, was reported safe.

'KOSHER' BUTCHER ADMITS SELLING PORK ON SUNDAY

Chicago, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Louis Schwartz, butcher, charged with selling meat on Sunday, declared he was a "kosher" butcher and therefore entitled to Sabbath business.

"What kind of fresh meat did you sell last Sunday?" the court asked.

"Pork, Your Honor," Schwartz replied.

"A fine kosher butcher are you," Judge Schulman said indignantly. "25 and costs."

FLORIDA HAS CYCLONE, ONE DEATH LISTED

PEOPLE WERE IN-JURED

Lake Worth, Fla., Feb. 3.—(UP)—A cyclone struck the village of Green Acres, five miles west of here today, doing property damage estimated at more than $100,000. Early reports were that one person was killed and at least 100 injured, four of whom are expected to die.

The cyclone, accompanied by heavy rain, came from the southeast and passed to the northwestern part of the state.

The only death thus far recorded was the 11 months old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Driskell.

Driskell, his wife and two children, were also badly injured and taken to a hospital.

SCOTT MARITAL RELATIONS AIRED IN ANOTHER SUIT

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 3.—(UP)—Principals in the sensational divorce suit of Congressman and Mrs. Frank D. Scott of Michigan today faced additional litigation as a result of Mrs. Scott's action in filing a new suit here, charging desertion.

The original suit was featured by testimony of an alleged congressional "junker" charged by Mrs. Scott, and by Scott's charges of extravagance and misconduct.

In the present action, Ward D. Peck, Mrs. Scott's attorney, said it was hoped to avoid the sensational features of the former trial.

"BODY RUB" ALCOHOL INDUSTRY TO BE ATTACKED

MOVE LAUNCHED TO WIPE OUT
ITS SALE AND MAN-
UFACTURE

HEADED BY ANDREW J. VOL-
STEAD, "FATHER" OF PRO-
HIBITION LAW

St. Paul, Feb. 3.—A legal war on the "body rub" alcohol industry, which if successful, would virtually wipe out the sale and manufacture of that commodity in the United States, was launched here by Andrew J. Volstead, "father" of the prohibition law.

Volstead who is now serving as legal advisor of the northwest prohibition enforcement division, commenced his legal attack with a "surprise contention" before Judge John B. Sanborn, in federal courts here last Monday, in a hearing to determine the legality of seizures of "body rub" alcohol by federal agents.

Permits to manufacture and sell body rub alcohol is conducted under a formula known as "No. 39," which was issued by the internal revenue department at Washington. Volstead contends these regulations are based on a law passed before the 18th amendment was introduced, and therefore were superseded when the prohibition law became effective.

If the court upholds Volstead's contention, it would mean the virtual outlawing of the entire body rub alcohol industry, involving millions of dollars invested capital, according to La Fayette French, United States district attorney who is conducting the case for the government.

It is expected the case will be carried to the United States supreme court for final decision, regardless of the outcome here.

NARCOTIC AND RUM RUNNERS TO BE WATCHED

FLEET OF 10 PLANES TO PATROL
COASTS AND SPOT
SHIPS

ILLICIT CARGOES TO BE CAPTURED, LANDING PLACES LOCATED

By JOSEPH WASNEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Feb. 3.—Seaplanes to guard the coasts of the United States against narcotic and liquor smugglers will be put in operation this spring or early summer, it was learned at the treasury department today. With a fleet of about 10 planes the coast guard plans to patrol all coast lines, "spotting" ships with illicit cargoes and locating landing places used by the modern buccaners.

Congress has been asked in the deficiency appropriation bill which includes $7,000,000 for the purchase of five new planes for law enforcement work. These machines will cost $150,000.

In addition to the new flying boats the treasury department is negotiating with the navy to acquire five of their seaplanes that are no longer listed as modern fighting planes, but nevertheless sturdy and capable of taking the air at any time.

Four of the new planes, according to tentative plans, will be sent to the New England coast. Along this section rum runners use planes to convey information to liquor ships at sea. The planes will try to interrupt this method of communication and at the same time prevent a reappearance of Rum Row. Another plane will be sent to the Great Lakes region and one to the Pacific coast.

Four of the navy planes will go south and operate off Florida and the Gulf of Mexico, where smugglers seek haven in many coves and inlets that indent the coast line.

TWO PLEAD GUILTY IN DULUTH COURT

Hughes as Counsel For Men Charged With Trust Law Breaking

Chicago, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Charles Evans Hughes, former secretary of state, today appeared before the United States circuit court of appeals to oppose the return of several defendants to Cleveland, O., where they are charged with violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, in connection with the dealings of the National Malleable Steel Castings company.

Three of the defendants are from Chicago and seven from Milwaukee.

Hughes contended that inasmuch as United States commissioners discharged the men on the grounds of insufficient evidence there is no reason for their being taken to Cleveland to stand trial.

Milwaukee and Chicago judges ruled that the men should stand trial before commissioners in the two towns had dismissed them, he said.

The judges took the case under advisement.

AMMUNITION SEIZED ON THE MEXICAN BORDER

The ammunition was concealed in a Nogales-Sonora taxicab driven by a Mexican. It is thought he was delivering it to a woman known here as Laura, queen of the smugglers.

SHU-PE-DAH WAR DANCE

Used by Te Ton Sioux Indians of Dakota Before Going on War Path

The Shu-pe-dah War Dance of the Te Ton Sioux Indians of Dakota is a war dance which was used previous to going on the war path. One cannot hardly appreciate the details of such a dance and the meaning of the different steps unless they know the story of the origin of the different parts.

The Chiefs and Braves are all seated in a semi-circle before the Council fire the night before the war with their heads bowed low in deep meditation as to what the sunrise will bring to them in the way of good fortune. The war drum is heard to gradually start beating to wake the warriors from their deep thought. As the drums are beat louder and louder, the warriors gradually raise their heads and slowly come to a standing position, then raising their hands and stretching on to their tip-toes as though in supplication to the Great Spirit who will lead them tomorrow. The drum by this time is beating fast and furious. A short pause, a severe beat of the drum and the warriors break, coming down on their heels with their arms folded in front. Here they stand with the front and haughty reassurance that tomorrow they will be victorious. Happy in these thoughts as the drum goes into a four-beat rhythm the warriors come forward around the fire, raising their feet high in a step they copied from the proud antelope. Upon getting near to the fire where the light is brighter, they seem to suddenly realize that some of their enemies may be spying on them from out in the darkness so again as the drum beats faster and faster, they build up into supplication to the Great Spirit as before. The warriors break into a crouching position with their hands to their foreheads peering into the darkness. The drums have taken a two-beat rhythm and the warriors going in opposite directions in a complete circle around the fire, peer into the darkness trying to apprehend anyone that might be spying. When the two groups meet again on the other side, they have become very excited and as the drum breaks into a four-beat rhythm, they come forward, using a step which reminds one of the stampeding buffalo of the plains. After circling about the fire, the group sings the Shu-pe-dah War Song which means "Fine enemy falls down upon the ground when he hears my war cry yet I must not appear proud." Satisfied that the Great Spirit will assist them in the war the next day, the drum moderates into a two-beat rhythm again and the warriors use the step of victory in receding to the place where they were seated in meditation. Exhausted from their efforts, they crouch down on the ground as in the beginning.

BOY SCOUTS IN TWO BIG RALLIES

Brainerd Boys at Court House, Range Boys at Crosby Armory

ANNIVERSARY WEEK, FEB. 8-13

Boys Start Ticket Campaign For Shows Depicting Scout Work

Boy scouts of Crow Wing county held two big rallies this week, one at Brainerd for Brainerd scouts, held at the court house on Monday evening, with about 80 boys present, and one at the Crosby armory for scouts of Crosby, Ironton and Deerwood, on Tuesday evening, with about 100 attending.

The purpose of the rallies was to explain the performances to be given on Feb. 11 and 13 in the interests of scouting, as part of the anniversary week celebration next week. Boys were picked for the different parts in the program not already assigned, and songs and yells were practiced for the shows.

Tickets were distributed for the shows, and a contest of ticket selling started with prizes for highest selling honors. The troop selling the most tickets, on a percentage basis according to troop membership, will receive a neat plaque, with a first class scout emblem in gold embossed on it, and the name of the troop and date engraved thereon. The boy selling the most tickets will receive one week of camping at the scout camp next summer, free.

The money realized from the sale of tickets will be used to build a swimming pier at the camp site, with a high dive, and other things to make swimming more delightful. If enough money is secured, an additional boat will be bought to supplement the two already owned.

At the rally Monday evening in Brainerd, the newly organized troop of the K. of C. lodge, Dr. Herzog scoutmaster and J. C. Gannaway assistant, had the greatest percentage of attendance, and was awarded first place in line for the ice cream. The troop had 15 out of the 16 members present.

At the Crosby rally, the Deerwood troop was awarded the place of honor, having 12 out of the 13 members of the troop present, with the thirteenth member on a visit to the West Indies.

BISHOP BENNETT TO ORDAIN DEACON

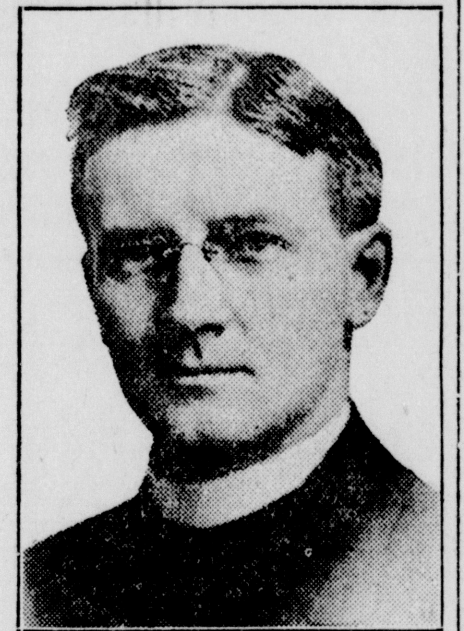

20 Visiting Clergymen Expected to be at the Ceremonies

HELD HERE ON THURSDAY

L. W. Hallett, Lately of Ft. Francis, Canada, to be Ordained

Tomorrow morning, Thursday, February 4th, the Right Reverend Granville Gaylor Bennett, D. D., Bishop of the Diocese of Duluth will be in Brainerd for the purpose of ordaining as a Deacon in the Protestant Episcopal church of the United States L. W. Hallett lately of Ft. Francis, Ontario, Canada. The impressive service for the ordination of Deacons as found in the Book of Common Prayer of the Protestant Episcopal church will be used by Bishop Bennett, with all of its full appointments and the usual ceremonial and ritual of the Episcopal church. The bishop will be assisted by twenty of the clergy of the Episcopal church of this diocese with representatives coming from Canada where Mr. Hallett, formerly lived and was born and raised.

A number of the officials of St. Paul's church stated that this is the first ordination service that has ever been held in St. Paul's Episcopal church of Brainerd, although it will be remembered that it was the first Protestant church building a church in Brainerd. The bishop has announced that immediately after the ordination of Mr. Hallett he will be appointed the minister in charge of Holy Trinity Episcopal church of International Falls and Baudette, Minn.

Bishop Bennett

In connection with the ordination service of Thursday morning, which will begin promptly at 10:30 a. m., the full choir of St. Paul's Episcopal church will sing under the direction of Mrs. R. L. Gustafson.

Accompanying Bishop Bennett from Duluth, will be the secretary of the Diocese of Duluth, the Reverend James Mills, Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church of Duluth.

Immediately following the service, a luncheon will be served in the rectory of the local church to all the visiting clergy from out of the city and the members of the local Ministers association attending the ordination service.

The following is the program for the order of service for the ordination, at St. Paul's Episcopal church, Juniper and Seventh streets, at 10:30 a. m., Thursday:

Reading of the Preface—The Reverend G. G. Curtis, Crookston, Minn.

"SOME WILD NOTIONS I HAVE KNOWN"

By the REV. ROY L. SMITH, D. D.
Pastor Simpson M. E. Church, Minneapolis

"REVENGE IS SWEET"

Revenge gratifies our pride, but it seldom satisfies our conscience. If revenge was sweet it would make us happy, yet who ever saw a happy avenger? Who ever saw an old man who had spent his days "getting even," who was closing his life with a smile on his face?

There is more real satisfaction in forgiving one enemy than in avenging ten. It takes more moral courage to turn the other cheek than to double up both fists.

When one man hates another, the hater is hurt most. The hated may be ignorant of the hatred and go on his way with a song, but no "hymn of hate" ever made any heart happy.

Scan the faces of the feudists of the southern mountains—melancholy, hardness of eye, grimness of visage—these are the facial markings, yet these are the men who have made revenge a business. Very little sweetness have they found.

He who cherishes resentment has started corrosion within his own soul. He has narrowed his vision. From that day on he keeps his attention on the fly and misses all of the ointment.

The French Revolution saw the common people mutiny against their leaders. Wrongs that had been growing for centuries were avenged in rivers of blood, but no man can read the history of the French Revolution, noting its excesses and atrocities, without feeling that human nature reverted to the primitive jungle and passions worked their worst.

Revenge is a skulking thing—a hissing, cursing, snarling thing. Forgiveness is a thing of poise, self-mastery, uprightness and courage.

TO SEE IF UNDUE POLITICAL PULL WAS A FACTOR

NEW ANGLE DEVELOPED IN THE
STATE CRIME COMMISSION
PROBE

POLITICIANS ARE TO BE SCANNED

St. Paul, Feb. 3. — A new angle was developed today in the state crime commission's investigation of paroles and pardons of inmates from penal institutions.

It was understood the parole board will be requested to turn over all letters from influential politicians and others who have asked paroles or pardons for certain criminals.

Whether this new move was brought about through belief there may have been undue political influence in some instances in securing release of prisoners, is not known.

The committee, it was said, however, is determined to learn how many, if any of the 1333 prisoners' paroled during the last five years were freed through political "pull."

The committee, with others appointed at the meeting of the commission Monday, will report at a meeting of the commission March 1.

HOPE TO CONCLUDE SCHALL-JOHNSON HEARINGS TONIGHT

Washington, Feb. 3.—(UP)—The senate elections sub-committee investigating the Schall-Johnson senatorial contest hoped today to conclude the hearings in the case by tonight.

A protracted discussion over the admissibility of evidence made it impossible to end the hearings yesterday as had been planned.

Peter A. Cosgrove, Minneapolis, who has already been on the stand twice is the only remaining witness. Counsel for Magnus Johnson, contesting the right of Senator Schall to his seat in the senate, hope to prove by Cosgrove that part of Schall's campaign fund was obtained from bootleggers.

The committee will decide after Cosgrove finishes whether Schall's opponents have laid a foundation for their charge of conspiracy to warrant continuation of the hearings.

Washington, Feb. 3.—(UP)—The senate elections sub-committee conducting hearings in the Schall-Johnson senatorial contest was asked today by Donald Hughes, attorney for Magnus Johnson, to adjourn hearings for 30 days.

The adjournment would be to allow the grand jury of Hennepin county, Minnesota, to begin a new investigation of charges against Senator Schall, Minnesota, republican.

Hughes said a number of Minnesotans called him by long distance last night and said an investigation by the grand jury was contemplated.

The committee decided to await the arrival of Senator Neeley, New Jersey, a member of the committee, before acting on Hughes' request.

PRES. COOLIDGE

AGAIN CRITICIZED

IN THE SENATE

Washington, Feb. 3.—(UP)—President Coolidge was again criticized in the senate today for his action in denouncing congress yesterday through his "White House spokesman."

"President Coolidge is assailing congress for alleged attempts to delude the country," Senator Wheeler, Montana, democrat, said in a speech.

"In a conference of newspaper men at the White House yesterday the president threw aside the usual questions and started attacking congress because a speech was made on the floor."

"I am not surprised because I recall that two years ago the president sent a special message to the senate declaring the Teapot Dome, Daugherty and various other investigations should not go on, because he would bring all the guilty to justice."

ROOMS NOW OPEN

Legion And Auxiliary Appoint Committees to Assist Salvation Army Drive

Through the generosity of Con O'Brien, the American Legion will have its own club rooms at the Juel block. Mr. O'Brien has offered the use of one store basement in the building, gratis, to be used as headquarters for the local post of the Legion and the Auxiliary.

The rooms are already in use, furniture is installed, and the ladies of the auxiliary are making curtains for the rooms. The furniture is being bought from the Trades and Labor assembly.

An outside entrance, on the corner of Seventh and Laurel streets, will be marked with a large electric globe, with the inscription, "American Legion Post No. 255," printed thereon.

The house committee in charge of rooms is composed of A. A. Gieriet, Earl O'Brien, and F. E. Janneck.

At the meeting of the Legion and Auxiliary on Monday evening, each organization appointed a committee of ten members to assist the Salvation Army in its campaign for funds next week.

The good work of simplification continues. Shovels have been simplified from 223 sizes to 127, with a total elimination of 4,000 varieties. The tack people have said, "me, too." Tourists are responsible for the destruction of many of our young trees, says a state forester. The practice should stop."

HEDDA HOYT TALKS ABOUT THINGS THAT INTEREST THE BUSY WOMAN OF 1926 SLEEVES

By HEDDA HOYT
(Written for the United Press)

Modern girdles have their sorrows. Today's styles are not tomorrow's. One day sleeveless—next day sleeves, Lucky Eve—She just changed leaves!

There's nothing rarer than sleeveless dress this season. A while back even a street frock was apt to be sleeveless but today fashions are reversed and it is not unusual to see an evening gown with long tight-fitting sleeves in keeping with the long-sleeved mode.

The higher the skirts go, the longer the sleeves become. Perhaps it's because some part of one's anatomy must be kept warm these cold days.

At any rate, one simply can't find a gown in the shops that is short-sleeved except gowns of ornate evening type. Shops are providing even evening gowns with detachable sleeves.

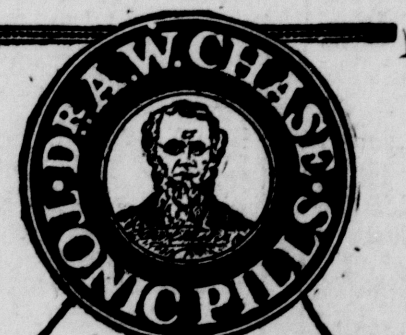

Almost every department store sells ready-made sleeves of georgette or chiffon in an assortment of shades. They are finished at the wrists with tiny ruffles and elastic shirring and finished at the armholes so that they are ready to be fastened into the frock.

A most striking example of the long-sleeved dinner gown was worn recently in Paris by the smart modiste who designed it. The entire gown was made of real black lace from high neckline to fingertips. The high collar fitted snugly about the neck, and a huge bow of black French velvet adorned one side with ends of the bow falling to front and rear. Sleeves, of course, were extremely tight-fitting and ended in points over the back of the hands. Except for circular insets of lace at the front-hemline, the gown was straight lined, slightly suggesting the figure.

Long-sleeved woolen dresses for cold days are considered appropriate for any informal afternoon affair. For instance, the smartest guest at a recent tea wore the simplest sort of a green kasha frock trimmed in gilt leather bands on the upstanding collar, cuffs and bodice. Gilt leather banding, by the way, is a very smart trim for the cloth frock and can be applied with gold thread in an over-cast stitch.

P's and Q's

The impression a piece of type makes on paper is just the reverse of the type's own face, and the lower case p and q are easily mistaken for each other in consequence. The expression, "mind your p's and q's" therefore probably originated as a printer's admonition, although there are several other suggested explanations.

COOLIDGE MAY REVISE ORIGINAL PLANS ON PARLEY

By LUDWELL DENNY
United Press Staff Correspondent
Washington, Feb. 3.—Postponement of the League of Nations preparatory arms conference commission meeting, has caused President Coolidge to revise his original ideas of calling an arms conference at Washington.

While the U. S. still stands ready to participate at any time in the preparatory meeting at Genoa the president and Secretary Kellogg are weighing seriously the desirability of calling another Washington conference.

Under the new plans being considered the president might extend next fall to major powers invitations to a discussion which would include naval disarmament and perhaps might extend its aims to air armaments.

CHARGED WITH TAKING BODY FROM GRAVE

THEN PERMITTING IDENTIFICATION OF THE SAME AS HIS OWN

FREDERICK BEALE, NEW YORK
BROKER, ARRESTED AT MIAMI, FLA.

Miami, Fla., Feb. 3.—Frederick G. Beale, until a short time ago head of a Binghamton, N. Y., brokerage firm, was arrested here today charged with having taken a body from a grave and permitting its identification as his own.

His "widow," it is charged, collected $100,000 life insurance which Beale had carried.

The former broker, according to the charges made against him, insured himself for $100,000 last September. Soon thereafter he went secretly to the Riverside Cemetery, Hancock, N. Y., and there exhumed the body of James H. Davis, who had been recently buried.

Placing the body in his automobile, Beale is said to have set fire to the car and sent it plunging into a ravine. Beale disappeared, the body was found in the wreckage of his automobile and was buried as Beale. Insurance claims already are said to have been made out and paid.

Suspicious of the insurance companies were aroused by the circumstances and today the arrest of Beale himself alive and well on charges of fraud, grave robbery and attempting to conceal a crime, brought him legally back to life.

JUDGE STANTON UPHOLD

THE recent decision handed down by Judge C. W. Stanton of Bemidji in the Itasca county reassessment case heard at Grand Rapids is drawing general commendation. As the facts are better understood one wonders at the course taken by the state tax commission.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press sums up the matter in a recent editorial in this fashion:

"Judge C. W. Stanton of the district court, fifteenth district, used plain and incisive language in refusing to allow the state tax commission to interrupt the collection of taxes, already begun, in Itasca county, for the purpose of putting into effect an eleventh hour reassessment of property. The 1926 collection was under way when the commission sued for a mandamus to compel the county treasurer to return the tax books to the county auditor and make the latter official after the taxes charged against everybody in Itasca county."

"The mandate asked for, said Judge Stanton, 'calls for disregard on the part of other tax officials of statutory requirements, denies taxpayers the right to pay taxes at the legally appointed time, makes impossible the ordinary transfers of realty, renders highly probable long delay in the apportionment of public funds to the various municipalities, and introduces a general state of confusion and disorder in important public affairs.'"

"The county officials of Itasca county deserve commendation for their courage in refusing to obey blindly the orders of the tax commission, which would have resulted in a 'general state of confusion and disorder in important public affairs,' as judicially declared. They were forced into the annoyance and hazard of a lawsuit to protect the people of Itasca county from the illegal demands of the tax commission."

THE CRIME WAVE

OUR idea of the crime wave is this. Every time a big pay roll robbery, or Loop jewelry store thieving expedition is carried out, there are plenty potential criminals to ape the job. Newspapers usually go to some lengths to describe just how the crime was committed, and the incipient criminal apes the whole thing. As the first set of criminals usually escapes, the embryo bandit reasons he will have the same kind of immunity from capture.

As one of Captain William H. Fawcett's magazines clearly states, we have a certain population in the United States which has taken to banditry as a means of vocation. Hunger and privation did not drive them to crime. They essayed the criminal role of their own volition.

What is needed is a few more Judge McClenahans to deal out adequate sentences. Less technicalities in law and more common sense. Less pardoning and parolling and more serving out of sentence.

Send a commission to Canada and England. Let them study court procedure and how sentences are carried out. There is no crime wave in those two countries.

SENATORS FILING FOR RENOMINATION

"SEVERAL of the leading state senators have filed for renomination," says the St. Cloud Daily Journal-Press, and reviews the legislators:

"Among the number is Senator Brooks of Minneapolis, who is also Minnesota's member of the national republican committee, a position he has filled with ability and diplomacy. He is one of the senators whose ambition is to serve all the people and he has an excellent record, and no member has more loyal friends."

"Senator Rosenmeier of Little Falls has also filed, and he is a very able man and his district will use good judgment in electing him for another term."

"Up to this time Senator John D. Sullivan of the St. Cloud-Benton district has given no sign of his intentions. He is one of the real leaders, and he uses his great influence for the state, keeping in mind the needs of his district, and he should be sent back by an unanimous vote."

GOOD ROADS A GREAT FACTOR

Now comes a fly in the ointment of the railroads, says the Tracy Headlight Herald. Minnesota lost her power during the war to regulate railroad rates within the state, and federal control of rates was cinched by a decision against the state handed down by the United States Supreme Court.

"Some thought that all was lost, but it is not so bad. Truck and bus companies are extending their lines to every part of the state and are operating under state regulation, and now comes the information from St. Paul that the new motor lines will be given every assistance in getting the business. In this way the state hopes to exert its will in transportation."

WHEN you walk out of church in the middle of the sermon, you disturb the minister and the congregation. When you walk out of the picture show, you shut off some one's view of the pictures. You dare not run away from your wife when she is lecturing. But you can listen to a radio program and when a speaker gets tiresome, a turn of the dial eliminates him and switches you to a musical program. That's why no mediocre speaker ever knows how much of an audience he has when he faces the microphone. He may be his own audience, for all he knows.

IT is said that Miss Draper needs no scenery, no draperies to help portray her characters. Her own personality creates the background of whatever sketch she is giving. We should have Miss Draper to assist Miss Tornstrom at the high school, for the gym has no scenery, no drapery, it is back in the Shakespearean era where a vivid imagination was required to fill in the necessary atmosphere.

CHICAGO TO HAVE PURE MILK APRIL 1

NO INCREASE IN PRICES IS PREDICTED AT THIS TIME

STATEMENT BY DR. BUNDESEN, COMMISSIONER OF HEALTH

Chicago, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Beginning April 1, Chicago will have pure milk and it will be at no increase in prices, Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, commissioner of health, said today. Dr. Bundesen's announcement was made at the meeting of Milk Producers' association, after it had been said Chicago could have pure milk "but it would have to pay the price."

"There are sufficient sources of supply to give Chicago all the pure milk it wants by April 1," Dr. Bundesen said. "Every time statements are issued saying farmers cannot furnish milk at the same prices, I receive telegrams from nearby sources offering us all the tuberculin tested milk we want."

"I have had inspectors looking over these places and I am satisfied they meet every requirement."

Washington, Feb. 3.—(UP)—If the United States is prosperous, high taxes should remain where they are, Senator Norris, Nebraska, republican, told the senate today, opening his battle against reduction of the maximum surtax rate from 40 to 20 per cent.

"If business is happier and more prosperous now than it was ever before there is no excuse for lowering surtaxes," Norris declared.

RAINBOWS GAME AT H. S. TONIGHT WITH BLACKHAWKS

LITTLE FALLS BLACKHAWKS
COME PRIMED FOR FAST
GAME

PRELIMINARY GAME BETWEEN
FLYING ACES AND DARK HORSES

The Rainbows tonight will take the floor against a traditional foe, when they line up against the fast Blackhaws team from Little Falls. The men from below are coming to Brainerd primed for the battle, and are vowing to cop the bacon.

The local team has been rehearsing for this game until they are confident of giving the Fallers a good argument. Since the time of Joe Bush and Al Dominick, when all Brainerd would travel to the down-river village via train, team or shank-horses whenever the game was to be played there, and all Little Falls would move their belongings overnight to Brainerd to be on hand for the gory battle here if the contest were staged here, Little Falls and Brainerd have been rivals, and goodly gathering of fans attends the meeting, whether here or there.

Little Falls is coming here with strong backing, and Brainerd fans are lining up to give the Rainbows a heavy moral backing in the way of ticket sales and cheers. If you haven't your ticket yet, make up your mind to get it and come. The game starts at 8:15.

A preliminary game will begin at 7:30 for those who come early. This game will be between the Flying Aces, a new organization of young stars, and the Dark Horses, another combination of players.

The Rainbows will have Bollens and Larson at forward, Ziebell at center, and Orth and Dieckhaus at guard.

DEMPSEY TO FIGHT WILLS LABOR DAY

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 3.—(UP)—"I will fight Harry Wills on Labor Day, probably in New Jersey," Jack Dempsey reiterated in an interview with the United Press upon his arrival here today from Cuba.

"Floyd Fitzsimmons has me signed to the contract and has paid me a cash advance," Dempsey said. "There is no chance of my fighting Tunney until after the Wills match."

Fitzsimmons will announce the site for the bout in two months, Dempsey said.

"It probably will be held in New Jersey," he said, "or possibly in California."

Reliable estimates place more than 600,000 school children in athletic competition in Greater New York alone. There are a million attending schools in the city, therefore six out of ten participate in some branch of athletics.

The New York Yankees lost 31 games this season by a margin of one run, showing that the team possessed little scoring resourcefulness. The Yankee team temperament is of the sort that can turn ordinary pitching to the three corners with a slam-bang finesse that looks good and wins by a good-sized margin. But when opposing pitching is more complex the batting shelves off.

RICKARD EXPECTS DEMPSEY-WILLS MATCH

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Feb. 3.—Tex Rickard, in making his boxing plans for 1926, appears to be sure that Jack Dempsey will defend his world's heavyweight championship in two contests.

Rickard says he has good reason to believe that Dempsey will meet Harry Wills and if he is successful in defending the title that he will give Gene Tunney the chance that he had been demanding.

Jack Kearns, who still claims the legal right to sign matches for Dempsey, accepted a contract last fall with Rickard and he insists that if Dempsey fights again he will have to fight for Rickard or be liable for a violation of contract.

It is not a dead cinch that Rickard wants to accept the many hazards that would be involved in the promotion of a heavyweight championship fight between Dempsey and Wills.

Politicians in New York deny that Albany has any objection to a mixed bout for the championship, but the fact remains that the bout was called off several years ago by some one after William Muldoon, then chairman of the New York Boxing commission, had ordered Dempsey to accept the negro's challenge.

Dempsey accepted and signed articles and nothing happened. Jack Kearns intimated very strongly at the time that he had been told to "lay off" and that he had to do it.

If Rickard does succeed in getting either one of the Dempsey fights it does not mean necessarily that the fights will have to be staged in New York.

The Pennsylvania Boxing commission has invited Dempsey to meet Wills in Philadelphia and friends of Rickard say that he would be willing to help the Philadelphia city officials and turn over his contract with the provision that Dempsey would meet Tunney next fall in New York.

So much boloney has been printed about Dempsey and his plans that very little is being accepted as responsible. It is a generally admitted fact, however, that Dempsey's business ventures have not been as successful as they might have been. He is not broke or in strained financial circumstances, but he is property poor and is in the mood to get some ready cash.

Stories have been printed that he is in bad physical condition, that he has a tumor under his arm, a trick nose and a rusty machine, but they must be discounted.

Willie Lewis, the veteran middleweight and now one of the smartest managers in the game, returned recently from a trip to California.

"Don't let any one kid you that Dempsey is not in shape," Lewis said. "I saw him working out and I know that he could go into the ring in three weeks' time and put up a great fight. He's working every day in the gym and he always keeps himself in good shape."

Chicago, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Senator William E. Borah, Idaho, republican, will open his campaign against the world court before voters of the nation by an address in Chicago on the afternoon of Washington's birthday.

Borah announced his intention of taking the question to the voters when the senate adopted adherence to the world court.

A faction of Illinois republicans headed by State's Attorney R. E. Crowe and former Mayor W. H. Thompson, invited Borah to open his campaign here and he accepted. Washington's birthday was selected as a suitable day for reminding the nation of the first president's warning against entangling alliances.

Best Golfing Average Is Won by Willie Melhorn

Fourteen of the leading professional golfers of the country finished with an average of better than 75 for their year's tournament play. These figures were based only on those who had taken part in twelve or more rounds of championship play.

Willie Melhorn, who threatened to win several titles the past year, but didn't, had the best mark, 72.33 strokes for twelve rounds.

Willie Macfarlane, the United States open champion for seventeen rounds, had an average of 73.23. He was third in the rating, MacDonald Smith being second to Melhorn with 72.44.

Will Klein, who played more championship rounds than any other professional, twenty-nine to be exact, had a mark of 74.55, bringing up the tail end of the list.

DELVE INTO OLD ACCOUNTS AT EWERT TRIAL

OCCUPIES MOST OF COURT SES-SION AT FAULKTON.

BANKING USES AND PRACTICES
ARE ALSO IN-VESTIGATED

Faulkton, S. D., Feb. 3.—(UP)—Delving into the nature and character of the account known as the Union Trust Co. in the National Bank of Commerce together with description of rural credit funds deposited in that account, occupied most of today's court session in the trial of Adolph W. Ewert, former treasurer of the South Dakota Rural Credits board, who is charged with embezzling $211,427.59 of the board's funds.

The prosecution also probed into the source of information and banking uses and practices in which this account was handled by Ewert while acting as treasurer.

It was developed today that the ledger sheets of the account prior to September 14, 1924, are missing. Marion Heck testified that during the time she was in the bank since August, 1918, checks drawn by Ewert on outside banks were deposited in the Union Trust Co. account.

Earlier in the day Miss Heck testified regarding an item in the bill of particulars, of $13,623.09. She said this was contained in a bundle of checks carried as cash items being charged off by a debit slip against the Union Trust Co. which were handed to her by Ewert.

St. Paul, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Minnesota highway engineers are in session in St. Paul today.

About 150 are attending the sessions, which are being held at the highway department building.

C. M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, spoke briefly on his trip to the Pan-American Road Congress at Buenos Aires last fall.

A feature of the session was a discussion of the use of calcium chloride on dirt and gravel roads as a binder to prevent dust, and in curing concrete.

New York, Feb. 3.—(UP)—Tex Rickard's license to conduct boxing in his new $5,000,000 Garden will be suspended or revoked if he gives any more evidence of doing business with Jack Dempsey, the heavyweight champion, it was learned today, from a source close to the boxing commission.

Rickard was called on the carpet late yesterday by the commission when he was asked if he had signed Dempsey or Gene Tunney to a contract, he replied discreetly, "I prefer not to answer."

Rickard insists he is not a promoter, a matchmaker, a manager, a fighter, a second, a referee or a judge and that as a private business man the commission has no jurisdiction over him.

THE FIRST BAPTIST JUNIORS
WIN FIRST GAME AGAINST METHODISTS

The Norwegian-Danish Intermediate team, the latest entry in the Sunday school league, marked its entrance into the league with a decisive victory over the Swedish Baptist team last night, by a score of 36-4.

This team is taking over the schedule of the Presbyterian team, and indications are that the team will have a strong claim on the championship rights. Lorry Swanson and Carl Satre were the big scorers. Lorry Swanson marked up eight field goals and one free throw, while Satre was close behind with six field goals. Both these men were smooth in their floor work. Mayo

Lawrenz, the other forward, scored three goals, and participated in the floor playing with precision.

The players lack a certain smoothness of play that will come with further development together. The material is excellent, and in a week or so the team will undoubtedly be one of the best.

The Swedish Baptist players deserve as great praise as the winners. They are outsize in every game they take part in, and yet they keep right on going with no thought to quit. For gameness against great odds this team deserves highest praise. Wendell Paulson and Mauritz Hagberg do excellent work for the team.

The First Baptist Junior team marked up its first victory by winning from the Methodist Juniors in a close game last night, by a score of 4-2. Smith and Nelson, undersized stellar performers for the Baptists, each scored one goal, while White made the only counter for the losers.

The score indicates the fierceness of the contest. With the start of victory, the Baptists may be counted on to come through in fine fashion from now on.

NATIONAL LEAGUE BASEBALL IS FIFTY YEARS OF AGE

"JUST GETTING STARTED," SAYS
PRESIDENT JOSEPH A.
HEYDLER

RECEIVES CONGRATULATIONS ON SUCCESS OF GOLDEN JUBILEE

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, Feb. 3.—National League baseball is 50 years old and just getting started, Joseph A. Heydler, president of the league, said today when he was receiving congratulations on the success of the golden jubilee last night.

There were great problems that had to be met and solved when the league was organized," he said, "and there are problems now that need as much thought."

"Baseball has gone through a lot of trouble, but it has survived and it still holds the faith of the public. The game is sound. The players are of the best class and the support has been very good. The future of baseball depends, of course, upon the class of players we can get interested in the game. You know now that good players are hard to find and when they are found, they command immense purchase prices and large salaries."

"The minor leagues naturally are the places where we have to look for players, but there are other sources of material that are giving promise."

"Years ago, before the time of Christy Mathewson, Eddie Collins, a college player would not be considered. Baseball was a hard game then and a college player was considered of the swell type. Youngsters did not get the encouragement they should have been given."

Several years ago Heydler proposed that organized baseball use some of its reserve wealth to endow a baseball college, staffed by former major league players. He was laughed down at the time and his idea was ridiculed as foolish.

"Mark my words," he said today, "when baseball has passed another era of 50 years there will not be a single baseball college—there will be dozens of them. I maintain professional baseball is an honorable profession and that boys can be educated for that profession just as well and as seriously as they can be taught to be mechanics, doctors or lawyers."

Heydler has an idea now that organized baseball should not tamper with college players until they have finished their courses and that college players who wish to play professional baseball should announce themselves and become subject to the draft with a stipulated bonus for signing contracts.

Do men stop growing when they grow up?

When you were six years old you wore a size 8 suit.

At 19 you were buying a size 35—but here at 42 you are still wearing a 38.

Have you stopped growing in size or in style? The first is natural—the second bad.

If you are getting older than your years—perhaps it's a past year's garment.

P. A. throws pipe-peeves for a loss

AND the bigger they are, the harder they fall, as Shakespeare or somebody said. You can prove this beyond question with a jimmy-pipe and a tidy red tin of Prince Albert. Any time. Anywhere. As a matter of fact, tackling pipe-grouches is P. A.'s regular business.

Cool and sweet and fragrant, P. A.'s wonderful smoke comes curling up the pipe-stem, filling your system with a new brand of pipe-pleasure. You smoke . . . and smile! For the first time in your life, you've found the one tobacco that scales to your blueprint of bliss.

Morning till midnight. Slow or fast. No matter how you feed it, P. A. never bites your tongue or parches your throat. Those important items were taken care of in the original plans by the Prince Albert process. That's why they call P. A. the friendly tobacco.

Right in your neighborhood is a store where they hand out jimmy-pipe joy in the familiar red tin. Take yourself there now and tell the man you want a tidy red tin of P. A. Learn from experience why millions call "P. A." the most important letters in the smoke-alphabet.

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

STOP THAT BACKACHE!

Many Brainerd Folks Have Found the Way

Is a dull, nerve-racking backache wearing you out? Do you feel older and slower than you should? Are you tired, weak and nervous; find it impossible to be happy, or enjoy the good times around you? Then there's something wrong and likely it's your kidneys. Why not get at the cause? Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Your neighbors recommend Doan's. Read what this Brainerd resident says:

Carl Sorman, 709 S. Broadway, says: "My back pained continually. Mornings I was stiff and sore and I could not stoop without getting a knife-like jab across my kidneys. My kidneys acted too frequently and caused me annoyance. I used Doan's Pills from Skauge's Drug Co. and they fixed me up in fine shape."

The state game wardens met at the Ryan hotel, St. Paul, for a week's convention, from Monday, Jan. 25, to Saturday, Jan. 30. A. F. Cardle, state game warden, of Brainerd, has returned from the assembly, reporting great interest shown in the meeting.

Part of the time was taken up with an examination of birds, animals and fishes, in which each warden had a list of 100 questions to answer. The state game laws were given the once-over, and the hunting licenses for last year were gone over.

Among the speakers were Governor Christianson and several state senators, as well as a representative of the Isaac Walton league.

Mr. Cardle states that those who have not yet sent in a report of their hunting licenses should send the report to him to check over.

DUTARIANS GIVE SURPRISE PROGRAM

Rotary Club Pleasantly Entertained
by Wives at Meeting
Yesterday

GIVES TWO ACT PLAY, "MAD"

Jedamces Wieland, Hoffman, Zapffe,
Whitney Play Leads in Charming Manner

The Dutarians, auxiliary organization of the Rotary club, surprised their husbands at the regular weekly meeting of the club yesterday with the presentation of a playlet "Mad," in which was pictured the efforts of two boarding school girls to get away from their quarantined school to attend the annual Rotary club banquet.

From the time that Claribel, in her role as announcer, appeared to announce the founding of the school, to the last curtain, the Rotary club, all members of which are Benedict, received a wonderful picture of themselves as villains.

The program came as a complete surprise to the Rotarians. The Dutarians, as the wives are called, had rehearsed the play in secret for weeks, with a resulting finesse of stage-craft that carried their hearers off their feet.

The cast for the playlet, "Mad," was as follows:

Dutarian, who announced the founding of the school—Mrs. W. C. Cobb.

Miss Henriette Lewis, principal of the school—Mrs. F. W. Wieland.

Naomi, boarding house student who wanted to get away from the school to attend the Rotary banquet—Mrs. Charles Hoffman.

Agatha, her friend, ready to aid her—Mrs. Carl Zapffe.

Kathryn, another girl of the school wanting to attend the banquet, and who upsets the plot to get away—Mrs. D. E. Whitney.

Tillie, the maid—Mrs. Wm. Spencer.

Girls of the school—Mrs. R. A. Beise, Mrs. R. T. Campbell, and Mrs. W. C. Cobb.

The play was rewritten by the ladies from an old plot, and made to fit the occasion. Mrs. C. L. Burnett assisted in drilling the cast. The plot concerns the efforts of the two girls to attend the banquet, and on the day of the banquet, the boarding school is quarantined for measles. The matron, a strict disciplinarian, is firm in her decision that no one leave. Naomi and Agatha decide that Naomi is to feign madness, and Agatha should then suggest to Miss Lewis that she be sent home, as her mother is the only one who is able to care for her during her spells. All is well until Kathryn enters, also feigning madness. Her glassy stare causes the cold Miss Lewis to shudder, but instead of sending them home, she sends them into solitary confinement.

The girls then hatch another plot, whereby Agatha should offer to take Kathryn home, Naomi going to her room. This plan is agreed to by the principal, and Naomi takes Agatha's place, and both girls get away. The principal, however, has a hunch that something is wrong, and calls for Naomi, who is supposed to be in her room. Instead of Naomi, Agatha appears, and breaks down with the confession that she has become a victim of measles.

The byplay at the expense of the husband Rotarians caused great merriment, revealing a number of family skeletons. The members of the Rotary club were loud in their praise of the program of their wives, having enjoyed the play greatly.

The meeting of the club yesterday was marked by another surprise. This was the introduction for the first time of a song, "Brainerd, All Hail to Thee," which was written by a fellow member, Rev. N. P. Olmsted, and the music for which was composed by Miss Cora Rickard, music supervisor of the Brainerd schools. The song has been mimeographed, and copies were distributed. It bids fair to become a popular song of home-city patriotism.

Visitors at the luncheon, besides the Dutarians, included Rev. R. J. Long, Herman Brichacek, E. F. Gates, R. J. Tinkelpaugh, and J. C. Hilbe, the latter a visiting Rotarian from St. Cloud.

The luncheon was splendidly served by the Episcopal Guild, and the members and friends attending enjoyed their hospitality very much.

An Agent of Activity

IN the one hundred and fifty years that have passed since the birth of the nation, the area of the United States has grown from the narrow strip of territory along the Atlantic seaboard to a domain of 3,000,000 square miles.

There is nothing comparable in the world to the varied and continuous activity in this vast area. The United States leads every nation in the world in industry, agriculture and commerce—in the output of its mines, the products of its forests, the crops of its soil, the goods of its factories, the volume of its trade.

It also leads in communications agencies for the rapid and dependable interchange of thought. Two-thirds of the world's telephones are today in the country's homes, offices and factories. Fifty million times daily the wires that interconnect them are used for the transaction of the nation's business.

Substantial advances occurred in various representative issues in the oil, sugar, metal, sulphur, tobacco and food products group and many specialties scored striking gains.
